

BLUETOOTH NSP BN120 MAGNET CLIP ON HEADSET

The new Bluetooth NSP BN120 MAGNET CLIP ON HEADSET ε it allows you to communicate freely without holding your smartphone, thanks to its range of up to 10 metres. The highly comfortable NSP BN120 MAGNET CLIP ON HEADSET features a sleek design with a magnetic earpiece and utilizes the latest Bluetooth V5.3 technology. This improves sound quality and reduces battery consumption by about 40%. It also supports A2DP compatibility, allowing the headset to receive stereo audio from any A2DP-compatible Bluetooth device. You can use this Bluetooth headset with any compatible mobile phones, PCs, Bluetooth adapters, MP3 players, and other devices that support A2DP. It charges via a micro USB cable and is so user-friendly and comfortable that you'll want to wear it all day. With the ability to connect up to 2 devices at the same time, you can pair both personal and work phone, allowing you to answer calls effortlessly without searching for your devices.

If you're listening to music on one device and receive a call on the other, the music will automatically pause so you can answer the call. Once you finish the call, the music will resume, allowing you to continue enjoying your favorite tunes.

The Bluetooth NSP BN120 MAGNET CLIP ON HEADSET will literally free up your hands. With just one button, you can make phone calls, reject incoming calls, and redial the last number. It features Bluetooth V5.3 and a long-lasting battery that provides over 4 hours of continuous talk time and 120 hours on standby. Additionally, it alerts you when the battery is low with a warning sound and a red LED flashing indication, that blinks twice every fifteen seconds. It also displays the battery level and percentage on all modern devices.

- The package includes a charging cable as well as a user manuals in both English and Greek.

2 years
warranty